

Across the Street and Around the World

Acts 1:8

Have you ever asked the wrong question?

The disciples asked the wrong question.

“Now do we get to rule the world?”

“No, now you get to reach the world!”

Christ calls us to be His witnesses across the street and around the world!

Across the Street and Around the World

Acts 1:8

1. The Power for Witness.

- The nature of this power.
The ability to accomplish a task.
- The significance of this power.
Taking the Gospel to the world is impossible without the power of the Holy Spirit!

Across the Street and Around the World

Acts 1:8

2. The People for Witness.

- The simplicity of witnessing.
Witnessing is telling someone else what you have experienced.
- The significance of witnessing.
- The certainty of witnessing.
Every Christian is a witness, some have just chosen to “plead the fifth.”

Across the Street and Around the World

Acts 1:8

3. The Plan for Witness.

- Starts at home.
- Supersedes all boundaries.
- Supplied by the surrendered.
 - Willing to go!
 - Willing to give!

If the Christian faith is worth living, it is worth living heroically!

Across the Street and Around the World

Acts 1:8

You have the power!

You are the person!

God has a plan!
