

1

KINGS

LONGING FOR THE RIGHT KING

Facing the Enemy

I KINGS 20
p. 302-303

I. The threats of the enemy (vv. 1-12)

A. The enemy is demanding. (vv. 1-6)

B. The enemy is formidable. (vv. 7-12, 13, 27-28)

II. The defeat of the enemy (vv. 13-30)

A. The purpose of God's victorious grace.
(vv. 13, 28)

B. The extent of God's victorious power.
(vv. 14-21, 28-30)

III. The covenant with the enemy (vv. 30-43)

A. The enemy makes promises. (vv. 30-34)

B. The intent of God's intervention.
(vv. 35-42)

Conclusion:

As you consider the grace of God and all that He has done in Christ to give you victory over sin, what is your attitude toward anything that might threaten your faith and holiness?